

Benefit Concert for Orthodox Women in the Performing Arts

A Bat Mitzvah Chesed Project
By Rebecca Ashkenazy

All proceeds will benefit Kol Neshama, a Los Angeles-based non-profit corporation dedicated to providing professional artistic training and performance opportunities for girls and women in a Torah-observant setting and to developing an emerging artistic voice through the creation of distinctly Jewish film and stage productions.

Sunday, December 18, 2011

3 - 5 pm

Refreshments immediately to follow.

$15 admission fee

Performances by recording artist Elana Greenspan, dancer Beth Jucovy of Dance Visions NY, award winning comedian Joan Weiner, YU High School for Girls' Choir, Rebecca Ashkenazy, Joy Resmovits, featured performer Shandel Antelis and many more!

Great Neck Arts Center
113 Middle Neck Road (behind the movie theater)
Great Neck, NY 11021