

You are cordially invited to a join us for a

Guided Bus Tour of

Jewish Harlem

and

The Old Broadway Synagogue

Guided by Jeffrey Gurock, PhD, Klaperman Professor of Jewish History at Yeshiva University, Author of Jewish Harlem, Past and Present.

Sunday, September 13th, 11AM to 2PM

During the late 19th early 20th centuries Harlem was home to a thriving Jewish community with numerous synagogues and cultural institutions. Explore this era from the comfort of an air-conditioned motor coach with a world-class expert and lecturer.

End with a tour of The Old Broadway Synagogue, which has remained in constant use since 1922 and is presently undergoing a renovation and renaissance.

Bus boards at 11AM from the Old Broadway Synagogue, 15 Old Broadway, NYC 10027

Presented by the Spero Family and The Old Broadway Synagogue in honor of the Bat Mitzvah of Victoria Spero.

Please RSVP by September 1st, 2009 to lsullivanspero@earthlink.net
